

Call to action

Good morning,
Prince William Here's your call to action — just because we know how busy you are, we're changing the format to be quick and easy to see the new volunteer opportunities and the pressing issues of the day. So here we go:

» I need 300 volunteers to participate in a functional exercise for the health department March 14 from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The health folks will pretend to give you a pill and send you on your way.
Come for an hour or two, whatever your schedule permits. Please e-mail Bonnie at bnahas@volunteerprincewilliam.org.

» The Joe 15 Team will have seven teams bowling at SERVE's Bowl a Thon on March 12. They would love you to sponsor them for any amount. These kids are doing all the work and learning leadership and philanthropy each day. Please call Debbie at 703-895-1606 to learn more.

» BEACON Adult Literacy needs adult volunteers to tutor other adults in the Woodbridge area. These new classes start in March so please give them a call today at 703-368-7491 to learn more.

» Habitat for Humanity has the perfect solution for lunch or dinner on March 8. Just stop buy Uno's Chicago Grille in Woodbridge with your dough raiser donation ticket and up to 20 percent is donated back to Habitat for all the terrific stuff they do throughout the community. And your family will love you.
Please e-mail Tiffanie at tlampasona@habitatpwc.org for your ticket.

» Clock Tower Thrift
shop always needs lots of volunteers to help sort and organizing donations. It's a quick trip from Manassas up to their store in Centreville. Great way for teens to help.
